CIRCULAR No. V 50

PASSPORT CONTROL DEPARTMENT,
Foreign Office,
30th June, 1948.

For official use only

Transit visas for the United Kingdom for intending Emigrants to Cuba.

UNTIL further notice, you should refuse without reference applications for United Kingdom transit visas to aliens intending to emigrate to Cuba, even though they are in possession of Cuban immigration visas, with the exception of religious immigrants, i.e., all clergy and all lay missionaries who have already been granted the necessary immigration permit by the Cuban Immigration Office. In these cases you may continue to grant transit visas in accordance with standing regulations.

2. Subject to compliance with the standing instructions regarding the grant of transit visas as laid down in my circular V/3 of 4th January, 1947, and subject to the exception noted below, you may continue to grant without reference transit visas for the United Kingdom to aliens holding Cuban visitors visas.

3. The exception referred to above is that the special instructions that applications by nationals of Palestine and the iron curtain countries and stateless alines domiciled therein must not be granted without reference, remain in force.
